

NBOH is Celebrating 77 Years of Community Banking!

Monday, June 20, 2011 – Oak Harbor, Ohio

National Bank of Ohio announced today it is gearing up for one of its biggest customer appreciations events of the year in celebration of the bank's anniversary and 77 years of community banking! The special one-day event is set for Friday, July 1st and will take place outdoors at all four of the banks full service locations in Oak Harbor, Curtice, Port Clinton and Oregon. Members of the banks board of directors, alongside NBOH staff, will be serving a complimentary hot dogs lunch and refreshments from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM. There will be a drawing for Cleveland Indian tickets and giveaways at all four locations.

"This is our way of thanking customers who have helped make NBOH what it is today," said Gary P. Macko, President and Chief Executive Officer of NBOH. "We value our customers and feel this is a genuine way of showing our appreciation."

ABOUT NBOH

With a history dating back to 1934, National Bank of Ohio is an independently-owned provider of financial services to business and consumers. The bank currently operates four full service offices located in Oak Harbor, Curtice, Port Clinton and Oregon and two loan offices in Fremont and Perrysburg, Ohio. To learn more about NBOH, visit nboh.com.

###